Minimalist in design. Exceptional in character.

Unmistakably L’Esthète.

Perched at the highest point of one of the most prestigious and emerging enclaves of Marbella's iconic Golden Mile, L’ESTHÈTE embodies a new standard of contemporary elegance.

Architecturally refined, impeccably stylish and unapologetically exclusive, every detail has been conceived for those who appreciate understated luxury and extraordinary design.

L’ESTHÈTE is part of Las Terrazas de las Lomas Club, a landmark building designed by architect Fernando Higueras and protected as part of Marbella’s architectural heritage. Its stepped white terraces and tall cylindrical towers make it one of the Golden Mile’s most recognisable and timeless buildings.

Inside, the apartment is dressed in the manner of a minimalist boutique hotel. Oak panels cover most of the walls and conceal storage, while a gym area, an office and a laundry area sit alongside the living spaces.…
