Discover this exclusive property located in the charming enclave of Benalmádena Pueblo, a place that combines the tranquility of a traditional Andalusian setting with proximity to all necessary amenities. This fully renovated home offers 250 m2 distributed over two floors, with a functional and elegant design that ensures maximum comfort. It boasts extraordinary panoramic sea views.

It features four spacious bedrooms and three bathrooms, two of which are en suite. Its southeast orientation guarantees natural light throughout the day and sea views from various points in the house. All rooms benefit from natural light.

On the ground floor, you will find a charming en suite bedroom with a large dressing room. This bedroom is completely independent and private, with natural light and access to the property's well-maintained garden. It also features a pellet stove providing cozy warmth.

The upper floor comprises an entrance hall, a spacious living room with air conditioning and a pellet stove, and direct access to the terrace. It is very bright and offers sea views. Continuing on the same floor, there is a spacious, fully renovated, independent, modern, and fully equipped kitchen-diner. Adjacent to this is a large storage room with a laundry area, which could also be converted...
