Located within just a two-minute walk of the beach, this beautifully crafted family villa delivers a lifestyle that seamlessly blends comfort, functionality, and coastal elegance. Set in a residential enclave prized for its peaceful surroundings and proximity to Puerto Banús — just a 20-minute walk away — the home caters perfectly to families seeking a well-balanced retreat with easy access to both leisure and daily essentials.

Spread across a generous 860 square metre plot, the villa offers 360 square metres of built space across multiple levels. It features five bedrooms in total, including two spacious master suites and three additional rooms ideally suited for children. The layout has been thoughtfully planned to ensure a smooth flow between private and communal spaces, creating a natural balance for family living.

At the heart of the home, the open-plan living and dining area extends directly to the landscaped garden and saltwater pool. This indoor-outdoor connectivity enhances the overall sense of space and makes entertaining effortless. A dedicated office area offers a calm workspace with views over the...
