Welcome to this exceptional home in the highly sought-after community of Las Bóvedas, enjoying an enviable frontline beach location in Guadalmina Baja. Properties this close to the sea rarely come to market, making this a truly special opportunity in one of Marbella's most desirable beachside settings. Although situated within a community, the property is completely freestanding and occupies its own private plot of just over 400 m², offering a wonderful sense of privacy and independence.The house is exceptionally spacious and full of character, beautifully structured ceiling details and a magnificent fireplace creating an elegant yet warm and welcoming atmosphere throughout.A beautiful covered entrance welcomes you into an impressive hallway, where a grand staircase forms a striking centrepiece of the home.On the ground floor, the generous family kitchen offers plenty of space for both cooking and informal dining, with a large dining table and terrace doors opening directly onto the pool area. From here, the outdoor living space becomes a true private oasis, with a covered barbecue and entertaining area complete with its own pizza oven – perfect for long lunches and relaxed evenings with family and friends. The spacious living room is equally inviting, featuring charming architectural details and large terrace doors that create a seamless connection with the pool, terraces and outdoor entertaining areas. A cozy on suite bedroom and WC completes the ground floor, providing an…
