Location, location, location!

Welcome to this spacious, modern and high-quality home, ideally situated on a charming street in the popular area of Los Boliches, Fuengirola, just a short walk from the beach.

The property features two generous bedrooms, two modern bathrooms with walk-in showers, and a beautifully designed open-plan kitchen connected to the spacious living area. Large glass doors open directly onto the balcony, which also benefits from practical built-in storage.

The property also offers a lovely private 9 m² patio set within an atrium, providing excellent natural light. Just outside the entrance, there is a communal outdoor space shared with only one other neighbour. A private parking space in the garage is included in the price.

The building consists of just 14 residences and offers excellent communal facilities, including a heated rooftop pool, sun terrace, sauna and gym. There is also a lift, wheelchair-accessible entrance and bicycle parking in the garage.

This is an exceptional and complete home for anyone looking for high construction standards, modern...
