Beachside Family Townhouse in Elviria, Marbella East

A beautifully renovated townhouse in beachside Elviria, Marbella East, offering an exceptional combination of coastal living, family-friendly surroundings, excellent schools, everyday amenities and easy access to Marbella. Located on Calle de Andasol within an established gated residential community, a peaceful residential setting while being close to the Mediterranean coastline and the many amenities that make this part of Marbella East particularly popular with families and international residents.

The location is one of the property's greatest advantages. The sandy beaches of Elviria and Marbella East are within an easy walk, with a choice of beach restaurants and chiringuitos. Supermarkets, pharmacy, medical services, cafés and other everyday facilities are also close by, making this a location where many daily requirements can be reached without relying on a long drive. For families, the area is particularly attractive due to its established residential character and access to a number of well-regarded Spanish, bilingual and international schools. The English International College is nearby, while Colegio Alborán in Ricmar and Attendis Las Chapas are also within easy reach....
