A meticulously appointed four-bedroom, four-bathroom contemporary bungalow constructed in 2018 and preserved in pristine condition, delivering outstanding privacy, seamless indoor-outdoor integration, and sophisticated Mediterranean living.

Oriented toward the south-west, the residence features an exceptionally private garden encompassing a swimming pool, establishing a tranquil and sheltered environment ideal for embracing the Costa del Sol lifestyle. The principal living level operates as a single-storey configuration, incorporating a luminous and refined open-plan living and dining space that extends directly into the garden and pool area. Absent of steps throughout this level, the property demonstrates superior accessibility and facilitates wheelchair-accessible accommodation.

Three en-suite bedrooms occupy the main floor, encompassing an expansive master suite with immediate garden access, whilst a secondary bedroom similarly provides outdoor connectivity.

The lower level encompasses a substantial multipurpose space, well-suited for a home cinema, fitness facility, recreation room, or supplementary living quarters. A dedicated laundry facility and storage provision enhance functionality. The fourth bedroom incorporates its own bathroom and autonomous...
